Your Property Management Questions Answered

What kind of terms are we looking at?

You would be agreeing to a term that would end at a time that we both agree to. We generally require a minimum of a one year term. Easy renewal of these terms is an option.

Can I cancel?

Either party can do so. Within the initial term, if the contract is cancelled by the Owner prematurely, an amount equal to the balance of the management fees for the remainder of the term may be payable to the manager, by the Owner, at the Manager's discretion.

How do the security deposits work?

Royal LePage Preferred Realty collects the security deposits, rent and any other funds on the Owners behalf and places these funds directly into a Royal LePage Preferred Realty, NON-interest bearing trust account within 24 hours of receiving it. The security deposits collected by the Manager will not be held by Royal LePage Preferred Realty, but will be paid out to the Owner. When the Tenancy terminates, these funds, plus accumulated interest (less any deductions), must be returned to the Tenant within 15 days. The Manager will pay this amount to the Tenant from the current month's operating revenue.

How do I get paid?

The rental revenue and security deposits will be paid out to the Owner, less expenses (if any), on or before the 20th of each month. The Owner can provide account information for direct deposit or a cheque can be mailed, if preferred. Examples of expenses could include management fess, administration fees and/ or costs of repairs and maintenance.

What kind of financial statements will I get?

A month-end statement with original copies of any invoices will be mailed out after the month has closed. A year-end summary will also be provided for ease of tax accounting.

How much say do I have when it comes to making the important decisions?

You will authorize the Manager a monthly budget amount and the Manager will use discretion for repairs and maintenance up to that amount without further authorization from the Owner, unless there is an emergency and the Owner cannot be contacted. Costs expected to exceed this amount will require written or telephone authorization from the Owner.

We can customize your contact to indicate the level of involvement that you wish to have. If you would like to be consulted prior to the placement of a tenant, we can do that. If you have a local contact or tradesperson(s) that you wish us to call if needed for repair or maintenance, we can do that too.

How do you screen and place Tenants?

The Owner allows the Manager to advertise at the Manager's discretion including, but not limited to: affixing signage, promotion by website at www.andersonavenue.com, internet sites such as Craigslist and Kijiji, social networking, and collaborating with local Real Estate Services, newspapers and/or personal communications.

We require the Tenants provide at least 5 years of residential history with Landlord contact references, if any, at least 5 years of employment history, 2 character references and 2 family references for emergency purposes. A credit check is done and if further investigating needs to be undertaken, resources are available to us that are not as easily available to the general public to cross-reference check information that may need confirmation or clarification.

Can I have some say in the terms of the tenancy?

We can customize the terms of management for your unit(s). If you would prefer non-smokers or no pets, we can do that. It is always our goal to place a tenant that will likely create the least amount of wear and tear on your property.

If you are looking for long term tenants, we can look for 1 year fixed-term leases which will help to prevent frequent turnover and unwanted expenses that go along with this.

What about insurance?

You will need to ensure that you have in place a policy that is specific to a rented dwelling. If your property is a Strata unit, the Strata Management will arrange for the proper insurance coverage for the building. You can obtain additional liability insurance for a fairly minimal amount. This coverage would cover things like a deductible if there were a flood or fire and/or if non-fixed items were stolen or destroyed such as appliances, these kinds of things would be covered. The Manager can arrange this for you should you wish.

What happens if the Tenant doesn't pay their rent?

If a Tenant does not pay their rent, we follow the rules of the Residential Tenancy Act by giving the Tenant notice to end their tenancy and then following the procedures accordingly. If an arbitration hearing is necessary in order to obtain a monetary order or an order of possession, this will be done by the Royal LePage office on your behalf. There is a $50.00 administration fees and a $100.00 filing fee with the Residential Tenancy Office, which could be ordered as repayable by the Tenant.

What if I wanted to sell my property?

No problem. Don't forget that we can help you with that too! If you decide to sell a tenant occupied property with a fixed-term lease (e.g. 1 year term), you must incorporate into the purchase agreement that the terms of the lease will be transferred over and honored by the new purchaser. Also, the Residential Tenancy Act stipulates that when a tenant occupied property is sold, the Tenant is entitled to two full months notice and an amount equivalent to one month's rent is to be compensated to the Tenant.

What sort of guidelines are followed by the Manager?

The Manager will manage the property (ies) according to the rules outlined by the Residential Tenancy Act. The Manager will not be held responsible for any individual Tenant's actions. We use the standard Tenancy Agreement provided by the Residential Tenancy Act and have added on 29 additional terms that outline in more detail significantly important terms that are necessary to agree upon in writing between Landlord and Tenant.
